M: Do you think there's discrimination against women / in England today?

W: Certainly, /and not just in education and work either,/ in many other fields as well. The tax situation for women/ is very unfair,/ for example.

M: Are women better off in other countries then?

W: It depends on the country. There's certainly much less discrimination in Scandinavia, /and maybe in America, too.

M: Do you think the position of English women will improve?

W: In some ways/ it will of course. I'm sure more women will go out to work /in the next 20 years. But the women have a much greater problem than this to solve.

M: What's that?

W: The problem of men's attitudes. We can earn more money in the future, /but I'm not sure /we can change men's attitudes. You see, /most men really think that women are inferior. Maybe we are physically weaker, /but I don't think this means /we are inferior. Then there's another problem.

M: Yes?

W: The problem of women's attitudes. Lots of women are unhappy with their present situation, / but most of them probably don't want to fight for change. It could be that the women's liberation movement /has to spend more time changing women's attitudes/ than it spends in changing men's.

M: One last question, /some supporters of the woman's liberation movement believed /that marriages should be abolished. You agree?

W: No, I don't. It can't happen. What may and should happen/ is that we teach men to spend more time looking after children /and doing housework.
